

R&R Environmental
Connecting Minds and Delivering Success

Joseph Samuel

Business Development Executive

A seasoned business technology professional with 20 years of experience across strategic alliances and marketing, business consulting, business development, consulting & business analysis, project/product management, retail operations, technology leadership among others.

Joseph has unique cross functional skills which, which has helped many projects & undertakings across the finish line, enabled stores turn around and teams succeed. Joseph has led many projects and programs in his career spanning business consulting, roadmap, product selection, business solution implementation leading diverse, global teams.

Technical Experience/Skills Set

- Business Consulting – Retail/Consumer Goods & Supply Chain
- Program Management
- Project Management
- Product Development & Management
- Retail Operations Management
- Supply Chain Management – Mobility Solution
- ERP Migration
- Strategic Alliances and Partnership Management
- Business Analysis
- Global Business Development