

R&R Environmental
Connecting Minds and Delivering Success

Persis Abraham

Associate Director

Committed to the highest levels of ethics and professionalism in business, Persis oversees the administration and overall operations of R&R Environmental. Persis holds a Post Graduate Degree in Computer Applications from PSG Tech, in India and has provided data management support on various environmental projects including those for prestigious clients such as the United Nations Compensation Commission (UNCC), Aramco, Sabic and other clients. Persis has also served on the board of charitable institutions with an active role in governance and administration.

Experience/Skills Set

- Board of Directors/Senior Management Roles & Responsibilities
- Company Performance Reporting
- Office Administration
- Database Management